* The classification as Early or Later Stage Team determines in particular which financial support you can receive through GATEWAY49. In general, early stage teams are at a very early stage of development, i.e. in the product development or market entry phase, while later stage teams are already more advanced, i.e. have a functioning product or an established customer base and are focusing on growth and scaling. Other factors such as revenue already generated (see Section 2) and funding raised (see Section 8.2) are also included in the classification. Please assign yourself at this point. The evaluation by the expert jury may lead to a change in the assignment. In this case the GATEWAY49 team will contact you.

9 Business Model Canvas (as a optional attachment)

Please attach your Business Model Canvas to the proposal.

The Business Model Canvas (BMC) is the tool of choice for visualizing a business model and a start-up idea and to test whether it makes business sense. Many experts now believe that the BMC can completely replace the outdated business plan. Developed by Alexander Osterwalder and published in his book "Business Model Generation", the BMC has already reached more than 5,000,000 users. It is considered a manual for visionaries and initiators who want to turn outdated business models on their head and drive innovation.
